

MARKETING PROJECT MANAGER

Construction industry

WHAT'S THIS ABOUT?

Our client is a global leader in the manufacturing of construction materials, headquartered in Germany. Their office in Montreal's West Island is growing their Product Engineering Project Teams with a manager ready to handle product launches.

We need a unicorn – someone creative who is able to manage marketing projects end to end: understand objectives, develop ideas, plan and execute. The key to success? Being a relationship-building dynamo who can rally different teams with different objectives around one project and achieve success. Your attention to detail is impeccable, and you're ready to hit the ground running.

Does this sound like your next opportunity?
